Prepared by the Department of Language and Literature
Date of Departmental Approval: September 8, 2009
Date approved by Curriculum and Programs: October 14, 2009 Effective: Fall 2010

1. Course Number: ITL122
   Course Title: Immersion Study in Italian Language/Civilization

2. Description: Students study Italian language and civilization in an Italian speaking country. Forty hours of traditional class work is supplemented by cultural activities and field trips.

3. Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this two-week course, students are able to do the following:
   - Increase comfort and fluency in speaking Italian with instructors, language students, host families, and the general community
   - Use the "lei" and "tu" forms of address correctly
   - Automatically respond to what they hear in Italian
   - Use an Italian keyboard on the computer
   - Complete written exercises assigned in class
   - Travel using public transportation: purchase tickets, read timetables, research on the Internet
   - Visit cultural sites with Italian speaking guides
   - Master the vocabulary of food on menus, at the market, and in grocery stores
   - Explain the differences between their daily routine in Italy and in their own homes
   - Read Italian newspapers for information and recreation
   - Shop for daily needs
   - Use appropriate dining etiquette

4. Credits: 3 credits

5. Satisfies General Education Requirement: No.

6. Prerequisite: None

7. Semester(s) Offered: Varies

8. Suggested General Guidelines for Evaluation: The student may elect to receive standard letter grades (A, B, C, D, or F) or pass/fail (P, F). The students are evaluated on class attendance and participation, progress (as determined by the Italian instructor), and journal entries.

9. General Topical Outline (Optional):

   Arrival in host country
   Installation with host families
   Placement tests
   Classes and cultural excursions
   Return to U.S.A.