Overview

This concentration offers a sequence of courses providing a flexible background for students who plan to transfer to a four-year college or university with a strong liberal arts foundation in the communication field. Students interested in pursuing television production and direction, film studies or radio broadcasting are encouraged to investigate the Media Studies concentration.

Career Outlook

The Communication concentration allows the student to enter bachelor degree programs and professional fields where the ability to think, create, and work independently are valued. Graduates with strong backgrounds in the communication arts have been successful in media and the performing arts, law and public administration, public relations, sales, higher education, business, and industry. The bachelor's degree is the minimum requirement for entry into many of these fields.
