

Prepared by the Department of Language and Literature

Department Approval Date: November 2, 2009

Date approved by Curriculum and Programs: January 21, 2010

Effective: Fall 2010

1. Course Number: SPN102
Course Title: Elementary Spanish II
2. Description: This is the second semester of a two-semester college Elementary Spanish sequence. It is for beginning students of Spanish. The text and ancillary materials provide a thorough four-skills approach: speaking, reading, writing, and understanding spoken Spanish.
3. Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students are able to do the following:
  - apply their knowledge of English syntax and structure to speak, read, and write Spanish
  - communicate effectively with increasing fluency
  - compare and contrast civic structures/infrastructures of their own culture and the cultures studied in the curriculum
  - create spoken texts in Spanish using short sentences, simple questions and commands
  - create written and spoken narratives using the perfect, imperfect, future, and conditional tenses
  - develop a greater understanding of their own language and culture when studying others
  - examine the “whys” of the Spanish speaking world – colonial expansion, independence
  - examine cultural assumptions
  - learn appropriate cultural and behavioral responses
  - learn the Celsius/Centigrade standards of measure
  - listen for ideas and familiar details in context in straightforward, uncomplicated speech by a sympathetic Spanish speaker
  - respond with short declarative sentences or with questions that elicit further information
  - read short texts enhanced with visual cues
  - transfer their English language skills (or other language skills) to the target language
  - solve problems across two systems to understand and analyze quantitative information using numerical data, such as census figures, square kilometers, salaries, Euros, and other legal tender
  - study world geography
  - study, in English, cultural and behavioral differences between their own culture and the cultures of the Spanish speaking nations
  - tell time using the 24 hour clock
  - use Internet applications to access Spanish web sites for information that updates what is presented in the class text books
  - use the Spanish keyboard tools on their computers including spell checker, grammar checker, and a keyboard layout that is different from the QWERTY keyboard
  - write short simple declarative passages based on personal experience
4. Credits: Four credits
5. Satisfies General Education Requirement: Humanities and Fine Arts
6. Prerequisites: SPN101
7. Semester(s) Offered: Spring
8. Suggested General Guidelines for Evaluation: The instructor will select a text and curriculum which provide cultural context for practicing and mastering the four skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. In class activities are structured to ensure mastery in the function, context and text type listed in student outcomes. Grading standards are based on the following rubrics:
9. General Topical Outline (Optional):
The Self: family, friends, home, rooms, health, school, schedules, leisure activities, campus life, likes and dislikes, shopping, clothes, prices, size and quantity, and pets and animals.
Beyond Self: geography, topography, directions, buildings and monuments, weather and seasons, symbols, cultural and historical figures, places and events, colors, numbers, days, dates, months, time, food and customs, transportation, travel, and professions and work.