The meeting was called to order at 2:05 P.M.

ROLL CALL:

Senators Present: President Bruno Gomes, Vice President Michael Andrini, Secretary Dorothy Bassett, Trustee Jarred Kalweit, Treasurer Nicholas Braga, Senators David Patrician, Christina Rice, Doug Schumann, Rachel Sanker, and Senators-At-Large Brad Lombardi and J.J. Singh-Kandah.

Senators Absent: Senator Padraic Tynan, Senators-At-Large Keli A. Gates, and Danubia Campos.

Trustee: Jarred Kalweit

Advisors: Lori Crawley

Guests: Dean Roseana Warfield and Mainsheet reporter Jeff Davidson.

APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES: Minutes were approved for October 5th and 12th.

OFFICER’S REPORTS:

1. President: Bruno Gomes was planning to attend a SAC (Student Advisory Council) at Worcester State College the evening of October 20th. Students attending would be leaving that evening at 3:15 PM and returning around 10:30 PM.

2. Vice President: Michael Andrini passed in a typed report concerning his involvement in the Rotaract Club as well as his work with Lori Crawley organizing the Standing Committees.

3. Trustee: Jarred Kalweit also planned on attending the SAC conference at Worcester State College. Jarred also attended the Board of Trustees meeting where one item in particular was discussed; a partnership between CCTC (Cape Cod Technology Council) and Cape Cod Community College. A motion to accept this partnership was deferred until more specific information could be displayed. Jarred will also be attending the Trustee Retreat from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM on October 31 at the Chatham Bars Inn.

4. Treasurer: Nick Braga had nothing to report on.

5. Secretary: Dorothy Bassett asked for the contact information of anyone who has not already given theirs, and told everyone that the office supplies are being reviewed by Lori Crawley and as soon as she has an estimated price list, we can allocate funds and put in the order.

6. Parliamentarian: Doug Schumann talked briefly about the importance of keeping office hours, thanked everyone for taking them seriously and provided everyone highlighted sections of Section IV of the Constitution. He also went over one section of parliamentary procedure which there had been a dispute about in the past (whether it is “Aye” and “Nay” or “Aye” and “No” when voting); and provided another copy of the guidelines from Robert’s Book of Rules.

7. Public Relations: Christina Rice stated that fundraising ideas are important and she is excited about the possibilities of increased revenues.

ADVISORS REPORT:
Lori Crawley stressed the importance of office hours, reminding everyone that two office hours equate to one meeting absence, and three absences is grounds for impeachment. She also let the Senate know that tickets to the conference in Florida have been ordered for the following students: Brad, Bruno, Dorothy, and Jarred.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

1. Raid on Student Aid Subcommittee-Jarred Kalweit: The people who will be putting fliers (about this financial aid cut) on cars will be meeting on the 25th and 26th. Volunteers will also be going out to the parking lots that night to pick up all the fliers thrown on the ground. There will also be a mailing of letters to Congressman Delahunt on October 24th if anyone else would like to volunteer.

2. Judiciary Committee-Doug Schumann: No report.

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Silent Auction: One fundraiser that we should begin working towards is a silent auction of gift baskets. Volunteers for a subcommittee were: Jarred, Doug, Dorothy, Michael, and Rachel. Members of the subcommittee should make a list of businesses to be called for donated goods for the baskets. After the list has been made, it can be approved by Lori Crawley and another organization doing silent auctions on the campus. Once the list has been approved, students can call the businesses and ask for donated items.

2. Scholarships: Without the specifics from Natalie Dubois, we were unable to make a motion for the specifics of student senate scholarships. Jarred mentioned some numbers to think about: $1,000 to a student leaving CCCC to continue their education at another school, and two scholarships given to returning students will be for $250 each.

3. Public Relations Committee: The committee will be headed by Christina Rice and members of the Public Relations Committee are: Dave, Doug, and Rachel.

OLD BUSINESS:

ASM Committee: Last week’s motion was untabled, and the decision was made not to join the ASM due to a lack of volunteers.

ADJOURNMENT: The meeting was adjourned at 2:33 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Dorothy Bassett –
Secretary
