ACCESS provides educational services on Cape Cod and the Islands to individuals, 16 years-of-age or older, to improve their reading, writing, listening, speaking, math, science and social studies skills. An experienced and sensitive staff offers free small group instruction, individualized tutoring, and computer-assisted learning opportunities.

Classes are offered year-round.

Other Programs Include:

CATESOL: A College Transition Program for non-native English speakers providing English and Computer classes along with academic advising, seminars, and study skills.

DISTANCE LEARNING: An option for Cape Cod and the Islands residents who cannot attend regularly scheduled classes. Offerings include both ESOL and GED preparation.

FAMILY LITERACY: A structured learning environment for both children and parents. Parents prepare for the GED while their children are engaged in age-appropriate activities and interactive parent and child activities.

SUCCESS: A College Transition Program for adults with a GED or adult diploma which provides college prep English and Math, college study skills, 3 computer credits, assistance with the admissions and financial aid process, as well as stress and time management workshops.

CAPE COD LITERACY COUNCIL: Provides tutors for the ACCCESS Program.

There is no charge for any of these programs.

This collaborative offers a wide range of comprehensive services to adult learners, including full access to the resources available to students at Cape Cod Community College.
