
Massachusetts’ new Chancellor of Higher Education, and Cape Cod resident, Dr. Patricia Plummer will give the keynote address to the Massachusetts Educational Opportunity Association’s annual meeting on Monday October 23rd at 12noon at the Cape Codder resort in Hyannis, MA. In the audience will be representatives of the 120 member organizations across the state who manage TRIO programs funded by the United States Department of Education including: Upward Bound (focusing on at-risk high school students, and the most commonly known TRIO program), GEAR UP, Talent Search, Student Support Service, EOC, Veteran’s Upward Bound, Math & Science Upward Bound, and McNair Scholars.

Founded in 1984, the Massachusetts Educational Opportunity Association is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization made up of educators, policy makers, professionals in the private sector and other individuals committed to ensuring that secondary and post-secondary educational opportunities are appropriate and accessible to students from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Cape Cod Community College’s participation is being facilitated by Sylvia Jimison, Director of the College’s ADVANTAGE program. She would be pleased to answer questions about the event, and can be reached at 508-362-2131 x 4511, or by email at sjimison@capecod.edu.

END